

Contents

An Unhemmed Dress: Popular preservation and civil disobedience on the Manhattan Waterfront from the 1960s-2010s - Fiona Anderson	1-18
Cockatoo, The Island Dockyard: Island Labour and Protest Culture - Lisa Milner	19-37
Career Decision Making in Island Communities – applying the concept of the Aquapelago - Rosie Alexander	38-52
Cocos Malay Language since integration with Australia - Alistair Welsh	53-68
Fleeting and Partial: A historical account of quasi-micronational initiatives on Lundy Island and their reconfiguration on MicroWiki - Philip Hayward and Susie Khamis	69-84
Brecqhou’s Autonomy: A Response to Henry Johnson’s ‘Sark and Brecqhou: Space, Politics and Power’ (2014) - Gordon Dawes	85-88
The Sark/Brecqhou Dyad: Jurisdictional Geographies and Contested Histories - Henry Johnson	89-108
About the Authors	109