

Contents

Life in and within transition: The dynamics of livelihood, identity, and governance of Sea Nomads in Southeast Asia - Wengki Ariando, Narumon Arunotai & Naruemon Thabchumpon	1-25
Coping strategies of elder Sama-Bajau fishermen to climate change in Wangi-Wangi Island, Wakatobi National Park, Indonesia - Asnarulkhadi Abu Samah, Amare Maruf, Ivy Ganadillo, Mohamad Naqiuddin Dahamat Azam & Hanina Halimatusaadiah Hamsan	26-44
Chain of oppression: An aquapelagic reading of industrial fishing in Port of Lies - Nick T.C. Lu	45-60
Rethinking aquapelagos in the Philippines' Sulu Sea: Perception and visibility of the state: The Ramayan of the Maranao - Rhodora G. Magan	61-84
Toward an archipelagic China: Alternative territorial imaginaries in two late 18th century Chinese novels - Lu Feng	85-104
Caribbean archipelagic memories: Entangled Jewish Dominican histories on Kiskeya-Hispaniola - Sarah Nimführ	105-126
A Rocky Paradox: International law, Island Studies and the socio-cultural Significance of pinnacles and sea stacks - Christian Fleury, Firouz Gaini & Philip Hayward	127-153
The perception and visibility of the state on the island of Žirje, Croatia - Lana Peternel and Ana Perinić Lewis	154-180
Island infrastructure as circulation and narration: Railway development on Hainan - Yu Weiyang	181-195
Reclaiming Saint Mark's Square in defence of Venice and the planet: The No Space for Bezos protests - Alexander Araya	196-215
Floodscapes for inland waterscapes: Floods do not need to mean disasters - Ilan Kelman	216-233
The 19th Century colonial archetype of the Indian crocodile - Arup K. Chatterjee	234-256
The Deerness Mermaid, 1887-1898: Selkies, sideshows and silly seasons - Simon Young	257-272
Feature Review: Huebner, S., Heé, N., Miller, I.J., & Tsutsui, W.M. (Eds.) Oceanic Japan: The archipelago in Pacific and global history - Henry Johnson	273-277